

Rick Craven

Biography

Rick is the Managing Director of Sikora Law in Sikora Law's Columbus Office. Rick's practice is focused entirely on real estate law. Rick handles real estate transactions and resolves disputes involving real estate. He currently focuses on economic development incentives, such as opportunity zones, to get deals across the finish line for his clients. From a transactional perspective, Rick helps developer and owner clients navigate in a cost-effective manner through acquisitions, sales, leasing, development issues, loan document review, financing, title and survey review, and closing coordination. He also represents title insurance companies, lenders, tenants, brokers, and other corporate and individual clients involving commercial landlord-tenant disputes, land title challenges, title claims, and real estate disputes.

Rick has been selected as an Ohio Rising Star by Super Lawyers eight (8) times. He currently serves as Trustee on the Board of the Central Ohio Chapter of NAIOP, and he previously served as Legislative Chair for the Chapter. Rick also serves as a Board Member for NAIOP of Ohio. Rick is a member of the Real Property Law Committee of the Columbus Bar Association. He has testified as an expert witness before the Ohio General Assembly on legislative issues involving commercial real estate.
